

ATTENTION ALL BROKERS!

Offering the right technology support for your agents can help you recruit and retain more agents. Inman News recently reported that the #1 reason why agents leave their current broker is because of the lack of technical training.

What's the true value of offering technology training resources to your agents? Inman News said that $100k+ producing agents:

- ✓ Tend to use technology 3 times more than the average agent
- ✓ 17% of producing agents don't even show up to their office
- ✓ 81% said they want to communicate with their broker digitally
